o len lext

Streamlining Outreach Patient Registration

Automate Out-Patient Registration in the Lab for

Time and Cost Savings

outside the hospital system, the demand for resources to support ordering volume rises.

maximize orders from clinics and physicians

Creating interoperability between the physician, lab and the hospital system to ensure streamlined patient matching and registration is necessary to

of today's diagnostic testing has led to greater automation within the lab.

further optimize workflow and increase accuracy.

Manual process to prepare out-patient order for lab system

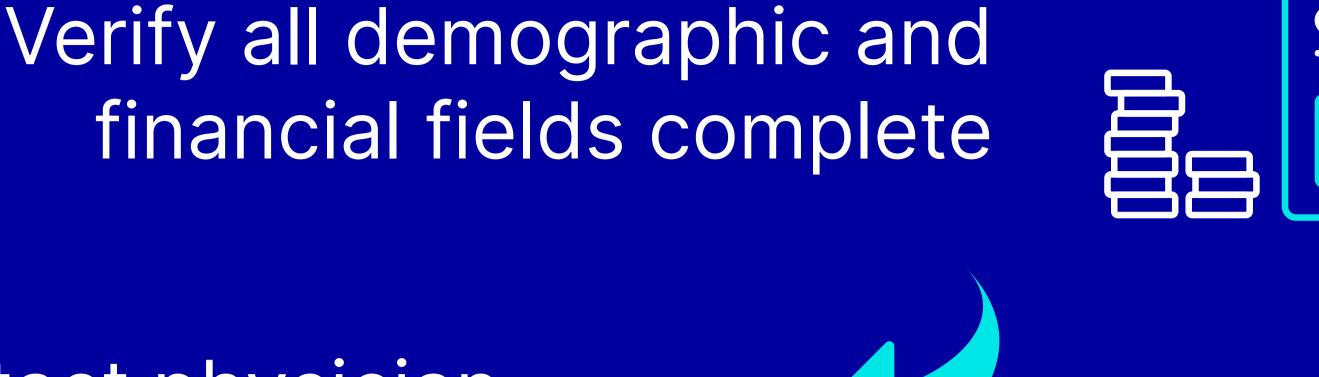

Out-patient test order sent by physician

Look up patient in hospital system to collect Patient ID

Verify all demographic and financial fields complete

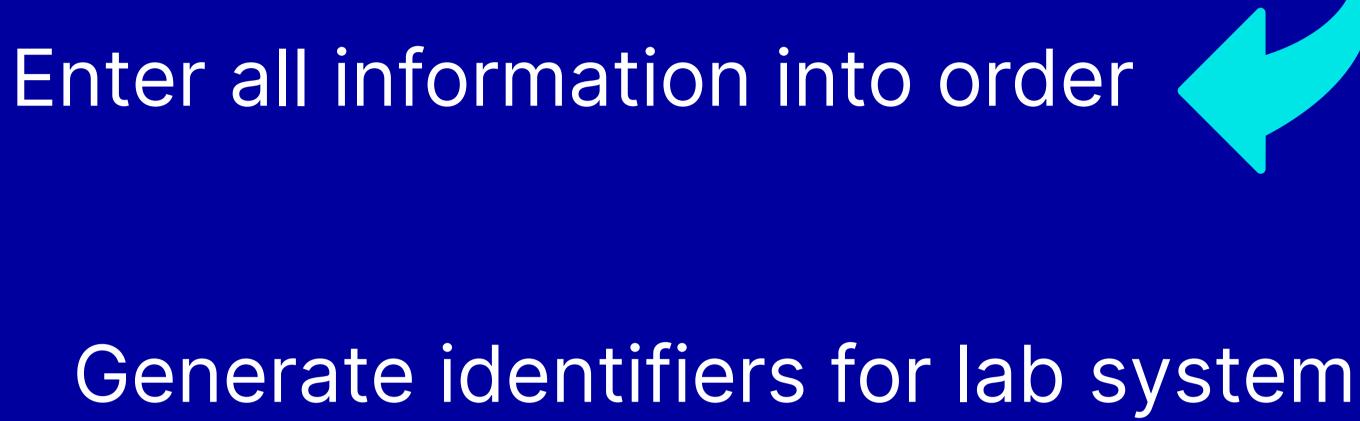

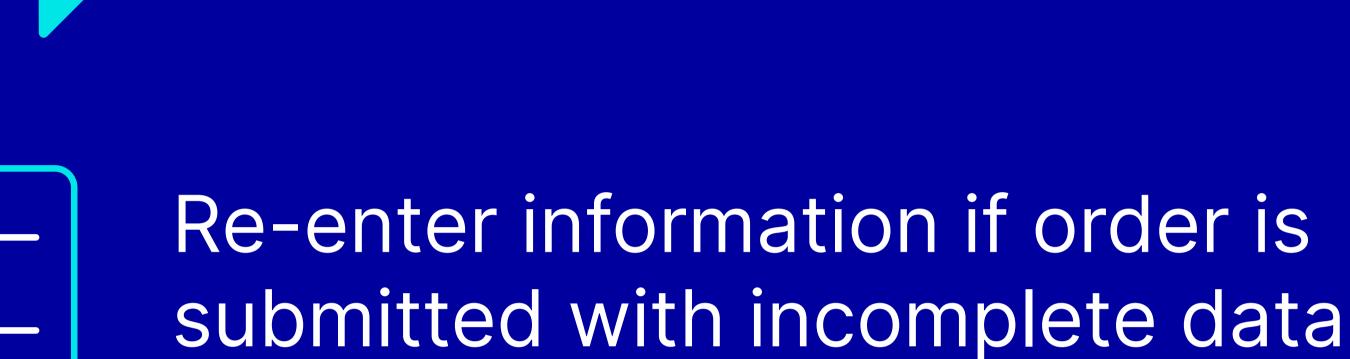

Contact hospital registrar if no record exists in system

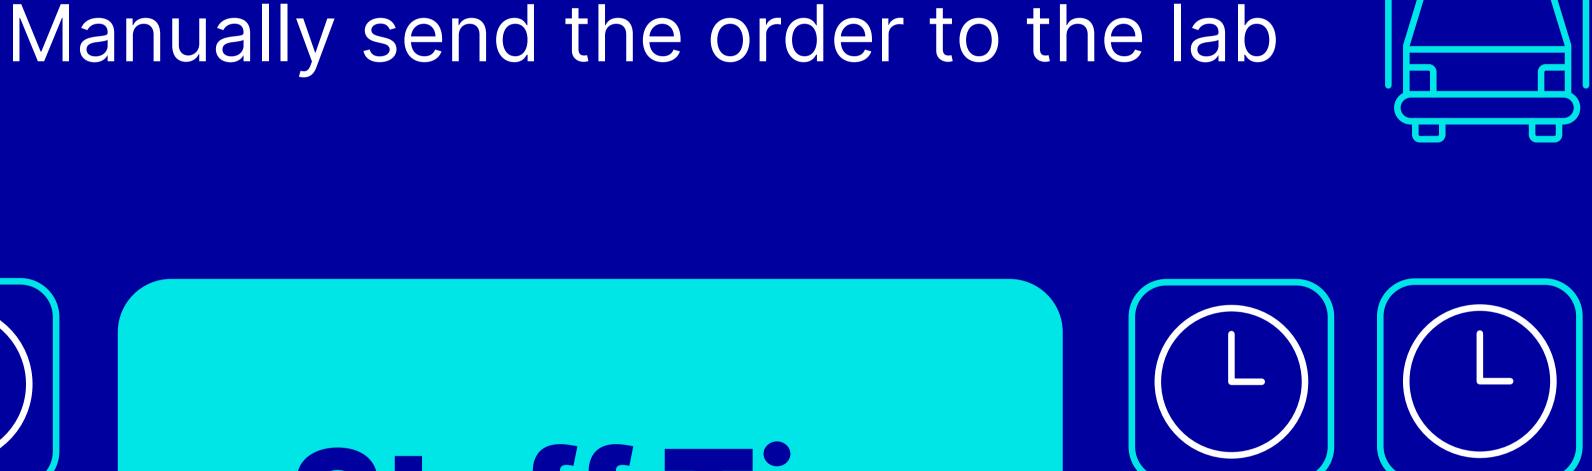

Contact physician

for missing information

Re-enter information if order is Automatic patient registration streamlines accessioning and pre-analytic workflow:

Improved accuracy of data Faster time to process sample

- Error-free return of results to records Correct, complete information for billing
- OpenText™ EMR-Link™ streamlines and automates registration of out-patients from clinics and care centers outside the hospital, optimizing lab and imaging order intake and minimizing errors, processing delays and staff time. Access our Automated Patient Registration data sheet to learn more.

Learn more