Vibe

Vibe puts the power of collaboration where it belongs: In users' hands. It gives everyone who needs to work as a team a single place to go online and get things done, whether they're writing a document, managing a product release, creating a collaborative space for a team, or are engaged in large, complex projects with thousands of moving parts.

Garden Valley School Division

"Teachers really enjoy Vibe and see a lot of potential in it revolutionizing how they conduct their classroom affairs, correspond with their colleagues and collaborate with students."
